

PLANNING PROCESS //

SUBDIVISION: PRELIMINARY CONDOMINIUM PLAT

ABOUT THE APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in submitting a Subdivision: Preliminary Condominium Plat application. The following packet will provide general information to get started on your project and guide you through the application process from start to finish. The package is broken down into three sections: Information about the application, a visual diagram of the application process, and the application form.

We highly encourage you to work with our Planning staff prior to submitting an application. For questions regarding any of the information listed in this packet or to set up a pre-submittal meeting please contact us at zoning@slcgov.com or give us a call at 801.535.7757.

PURPOSE

A condominium plat is required for any condominium project as defined by state code.

STEPS

The owner or developer of a proposed condominium project desiring approval shall file both a preliminary plat application and a final plat application. Preliminary plat approval is required before the final plat is requested.

APPEAL OF DECISION (20.30)

Any person adversely and materially affected by any final decision made by the planning director or designee may file a petition for review of the decision with the planning commission within ten (10) days after the record of decision is posted to the city's website.

Any person adversely affected by any final decision made by the Planning Commission under this chapter may file a petition for review of the decision with the Appeals Hearing Officer within ten (10) days after the decision is rendered.

CONSULTATION

If you have questions regarding the Subdivision: Preliminary Condominium Plat regulations or process, please contact the Salt Lake City Planning Counter staff at zoning@slcgov.com or give us a call at 801-535-7757. If you would like to discuss your development plan in more detail, you can request a pre-submittal meeting with Planning staff by contacting the Planning Counter.

Pre-submittal meetings are held on Thursdays in 30 minute slots between 1:30 and 3:30 pm.
