HIGHLIGHTS

Capitol Hill Community Plan Update

Salt Lake City is currently updating its Capitol Hill Community Plan, adopted in 2001. The update aims to align with current city goals, including Plan Salt Lake and Housing SLC. The update establishes a 15-year vision for the neighborhood, setting actionable and achievable community goals.

The process began with an assessment of existing conditions and the first phase of public engagement, which gathered input from residents and stakeholders through surveys, interviews, and community events. These findings can be found here:

Capitol Hill Community Plan Existing Conditions Report 2025

This feedback will guide the second phase where the team will develop specific policies to address citywide goals and community needs. These draft policies and themes will be presented to the community for additional input.
