I. Convene meeting

Cal Noyce presided over and conducted the meeting, which convened at 5:04 p.m.

II. Welcome and Introduction of Members and Guests - Cal welcomed the attendees and everyone introduced themselves.

III. New Business

- a) Organized Crime Unit (OCU) – Lt. Askerlund briefed the Board on the Organized Crime Unit formerly known as the Vice Unit. He explained some minor law changes and said the OCU is now focusing more on the victims of crimes. He spoke specifically about the different variants of prostitutes, how they are considered victims and what resources they have used and are looking for to help these individuals get out of that lifestyle. Several Board members offered suggestions for resources to further help this cause.
- b) Deputy Chief Jim Coleman and Lt. Fred Ross followed up with more information regarding the OCU including how they are trying to establish relationships with some of the victims in order to better help them. Jim also said he appreciates the resources the Board has given them and he feels they do a terrific job because they have come to understand the complexities of police work and know that Salt Lake City expects more from their officers

IV. Public Comment: There were no public comments.
