Trends/Issues Identified and Relayed to the Police Department

No significant trends were noted this quarter as there were not a number of similar cases filed against any specific officer and/or unit. Once again, another “search related” complaint was sustained showing the ongoing need for regular training within this area, as recommended in prior quarterly reports. Search and Seizure issues have been and will continue to be an issue due to the ever changing nature of the law, the complexness of this area, and the fact that in some more nuanced areas, officer’s knowledge of the very finest points of the law/policy has deteriorated with time.

Internal Affairs Cases
