Design Guidelines for Residential Historic Districts in Salt Lake City 1999

These design guidelines are adapted and revised from the Design Guidelines for Residential Historic Districts in Salt Lake City adopted 1999 and prepared by Winter & Company, with Clarion Associates. In particular, the Historic Context & Architectural Styles section and the histories of the historic districts, are based on the material written by Elizabeth Egleston Giraud for the 1999 guidelines.

Illustrations from 1999 Design Guidelines

"The Utah State Historical Society. All rights reserved. Used by permission." Applies to the photographs on pages: 3:6, 4:6, 4:7(Top), 4:17, 4:31(Bottom), 4:32, 14:1, 15:1, & 15:6(Bottom left).

A series of hand drawings in this Handbook are re-used from the 1999 Design Guidelines. They were prepared by Winter & Company for that document and are used again here with their kind permission, copyright reserved. Specifically, these include the hand illustrations on pages: 2:2, 2:7, 3:3, 3:5, 3:8, 3:9, 4:2, 5:2, 6:2, 7:1, 7:2, 7:3, 7:4, 7:6, 8:2, 9:1 & 11:3.

Most of the black and white photographs in the Architectural Styles section are retained from the 1999 Design Guidelines, and were taken by Lisa Miller (previously with Salt Lake City Planning Division) and the staff of Winter & Company, except as identified elsewhere in these acknowledgements.

Some photographs used in the New Construction chapter are kindly provided from the personal collection of Stephen James, and are used here with permission. These include photographs on pages: 12:5(Bottom), 12:9, 12:10(Top), 12:11, 12:12(Bottom), 12:13, 12:14 & 12:17

All other photographs (with the temporary exception of a series in the Additions chapter) were taken by the preservation staff of the Planning Division, Salt Lake City Corporation.
