Ballpark NEXT

Salt Lake City is excited to announce the Ballpark NEXT Design Competition—an opportunity for residents, post-secondary students, and development professionals to tell us what they envision for the future of the Smith's Ballpark site.

After 100+ years of baseball on the site, we're excited to get input from you on what's next, and for you to provide your ideas to help the City reimagine uses for the site that will serve the neighborhood, City, and our residents for decades to come! Visit ballparknext.com for competition details and info on future informational events.

SLCtv Media Updates

Salt Lake City Becomes First City in Utah to Commit to Vision Zero

Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall announced that the City will join the Vision Zero Network, a national strategy to eliminate all traffic fatalities and severe injuries on City streets, while increasing safe, healthy, equitable mobility for all. "Our residents deserve to travel safely to and from our incredible neighborhoods, regardless of what time of day they travel, or how they travel," Mayor Mendenhall said. "Vision Zero is not more of the same. It is a significant departure from the status quo that will further solidify Salt Lake City's commitment to safe streets."
