Ballpark NEXT

The Ballpark NEXT Design Competition is still calling for entries through March 17th! This ideas competition an opportunity for residents, post-secondary students, and development professionals to tell us what they envision for the future of the Smith's Ballpark site.

Q) How will Ballpark residents learn about opportunities to have meaningful input in addition to the competition

A) With the news of the Salt Lake Bees leaving, the City created the Ballpark NEXT Design Competition so that residents may provide their ideas to potentially inform and inspire the next steps of the City's development of the ballpark site and City-owned adjacent properties. There will be additional opportunities for meaningful input to take place...

SLC Media Updates

Press Conference - Groundbreaking for Spark on North Temple

Salt Lake City Mayor Erin Mendenhall and members of the Salt Lake City Council joined the SLC RDA and community/financial partners to kick off the construction of Spark, a mixed-use, mixed-income, transit-oriented development located at 1490 W. North Temple Blvd.

Purchased by the Redevelopment Agency of Salt Lake City (RDA) in 2017, the former Overniter Motel site will soon be home to 200 residential units, with 100 of the studio-to 4-bedroom units available at rates affordable to families between 20-60% of the area median income (AMI) and the other 100 affordable to those making 70-80% AMI. A 5,000-square-foot childcare center and outdoor play yard, commercial spaces, and a public courtyard will be located on the ground floor. A pedestrian- and bike-friendly mid-block walkway will connect Cornell Street to 1460 West.
