Arts, Culture, and Events (ACE) Fund

Since 2012, the Office of the Mayor has provided Arts, Culture, and Events (ACE) funding to support and grow neighborhood and community events in Salt Lake City. ACE sponsored events contribute to Salt Lake City's unique and vibrant culture and bring communities together.

Awards range from $500 to $10,000, both large and small events are encouraged to apply!

Applications open November 1st and close on December 13th. For more information, click 'More Info' below to read about ACE funding and find a schedule of Q&A events where you can learn more about the application and funding process.

Rose Park Día de los Muertos Festival

The Rose Park Día de los Muertos Festival returns to the Day-Riverside Branch! A Mexican tradition, Día de los Muertos is a joyful celebration of those who have passed on. Festivities include music and dance performances, calavera (sugar skull) and altar decorating, selfie stations, temporary face tattoos, food and drink, and more.

All are welcome! The festival will be hosted at the Day-Riverside Branch Library (1575 W 1000 N, Salt Lake City, UT 84116) from 6-8:30 PM on November 4th.

Parks, Trails, and Open Space Bond

This November, Salt Lake City voters have an opportunity to vote on the Parks, Trails and Open Space General Obligation (GO) Bond. This bond provides the opportunity to build on existing investments to enhance the public lands system. If passed, the City plans to fund eight significant projects across the City. Project budgets, plus a 20% contingency, add up to $85 million.

Don't forget to cast your ballot! Election Day, including voting on the Parks, Trails, and Open Space Bond, is November 8th.
