QUESTION		SCORING CRITERIA
Project Eligibility		Pass	Fail	Unclear
Does the project fall within SLC boundaries?
Does the applicant have land use permission?
Does the project comply with relevant City/County/State Code?
Project Proposal		Strong	Adequate	Weak
Please describe how this grant will support you in producing your own food.		Project proposal is feasible and clearly connected to the goal of supporting individual residents, families, and neighbors in producing, growing, or raising their own food.	Project proposal seems feasible but may be unclear how it will support the applicant in producing/growing/raising their own food.	Project proposal is not feasible and/or doesn't describe how the project will support the applicant in producing, growing, or raising their own food.
Why is this project important to you? What impact will this grant have?		Provides clear and compelling reason for importance of project to food access/equity	Provides an understandable reason for taking on this project, but only has an adequate connection to the impact on food access/equity	Does not provide a good reason for the project or isn't clear about impact of the project for food access/equity
How would your project incorporate sustainable and/or environmentally beneficial practices?		Project will definitely incorporate sustainable/environmentally beneficial practices as a core part of the project.	Project may include some sustainable practices, but it isn't a core part of the project	Project doesn't use sustainable practices or a poor or inaccurate description of sustainable practices is provided.
Please provide a brief budget or general estimate of how you will spend the $250 grant on your proposed project.		Budget for project is laid out clearly, project proposal is feasible with the funding offered, and identifies how all funds will be spent.	Budget for project lacks some clarity, it is uncertain if project proposal is feasible with the funding offered, and/ or unclear how funds will be spent.	No real budget or description of spending is provided or the proposal does not seem feasible or reasonable within requested budget.
