

Skyline Challenge 2017 Awards Nomination

Submit to: projectskyline@slcgov.com

Deadline: June 30th, 2017

With the conclusion of the third year of the Skyline Challenge, participants have an opportunity to receive an award for efforts to reduce energy consumption in their buildings.

Salt Lake City Mayor Jackie Biskupski and the Project Skyline team will be hosting the third annual Skyline Challenge Awards luncheon on July 19th, 2017, from Noon to 1:30pm at the Gallivan Center in Downtown Salt Lake City.

Three Steps to Submit Your Nomination

Submit following items to projectskyline@slcgov.com

1. Complete 2015 & 2016 Portfolio Manager Data Request (Click Here)
2. Submit Nomination Form
3. Submit Summary (2-pg max) describing the energy efficiency effort you are nominating and up to five pages of supporting photos/energy data

Nomination Form

Nomination Information

Company/Org./Individual Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Contact Person: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____

Project Name: _____

Project Location: _____

Award Category

Highest Energy Star Score

Most Improved Energy Star Score

Tenant /Building Management Collaboration

Benchmarking Champion

Energy Project of the Year

Other (examples could include Employee Engagement, Community Leadership)

Please attach a summary of up to two pages describing the energy leadership/efficiency effort you are nominating for the Skyline Challenge Awards, and up to five pages/slides of supporting photos/energy data.

