AUGUST 2022

Hello District Six Neighbors,

The Council recently adopted the annual City budget. One thing was clear to me throughout the process – our City is growing and so is the demand for City services. During the budget process, the Council had tough policy discussions about the current economy and how property tax and fee increases would impact residents. I believe we ultimately found a balance and adopted a budget to keep up with service demands and stay on track as a healthy, growing city. For more about the Council's budget discussions and what was adopted, visit tinyurl.com/SLCFY23.

This newsletter includes ideas each of us can do to improve our city and keep it vibrant. Consider the below list to get started.

- Get out and enjoy our many public spaces, including parks and trails.
- Use our robust public transit system to get you to work and around town.
- Ride your bike or e-bike to see your neighborhood in a new way.
- Do all you can do to conserve water. My wife and I recently replaced part of our lawn with drought tolerant plants!

I hope to see you around our community.

Biking SLC

Salt Lake City is committed to improving people's transportation choices – including biking. The City is working to improve cyclist safety, enhance quality of life, provide sustainable and healthy transportation choices, and improve air quality in our region.

Biking is an important part of our transportation system, and bikes are permitted on all TRAX and Frontrunner trains, subject to space limitations. All UTA buses (except Paratransit and Ski buses) have bike racks.

GREENbike is Utah's only nonprofit bike-share program. The program offers residents and visitors an affordable and easy transportation option.

Don't forget the leash...

Our City has several parks to enjoy. Some parks, such as Miller Bird Refuge and Nature Park, host thriving ecosystems.

When you're out, please remember to keep your dogs leashed. Off-leash dogs in shared spaces in our neighborhoods, parks or foothill trails are in violation of local ordinance and may disturb the plants and wildlife. In addition, everyone using these shared spaces wants to feel safe and able to recreate harmoniously.

If your dog is off your property, they need to be on leash unless you're in a designated off-leash area. It's the law.

Always remember a few dog waste bags before heading out. Be a good neighbor by picking up after your dog. Please contact Salt Lake County Animal Services at 385-GOT-PETS or AdoptUtahPets.org with questions.

You can make a difference by conserving water

Small changes in your routine can help address our water shortages:

Stop the flow when you aren't actively using water

When washing clothes or dishes, wait for a full load

Reduce the flow of water from your tap

Water lawns less, avoiding daylight hours

Capture the flow while you wait for hot or cold

Manage leaks inside and outside your home

Scrape scraps from dishes instead of pre-washing

Take shorter showers

Rethink your daily travel with UTA

From bus to rail to paratransit, riding with UTA is easy when you follow these steps:

1. Plan your route ahead of time by visiting rideuta.com/plan.
2. Arrive at your stop at least five minutes early.
3. Track transit vehicles using UTA's Transit Tracker app.
4. Make sure you're getting on the right transit vehicle.
5. Pay your fare when you enter the platform or step on board.
6. If riding the bus:
 - Don't forget to ask the operator for a transfer, if applicable.
 - Keep an eye out for your stop and request it.
7. Hold on to the rails and handles as you make your way to the exit.
8. If you are using a transit pass card remember to tap on and off. Electronic readers are located at all doors on UTA buses and near the entrances to TRAX and FrontRunner platforms.

Helpful Tips:

Text the bus stop number printed on each sign to 882-882 (UTA-UTA) to get a text back with the next three times a bus is coming by the stop.

Receive alerts about delays, detours, and service disruptions via UTA's trip planning app transitapp.com or subscribe to receive route-specific text or email alerts at tinyurl.com/UTAServiceAlerts.
