6/14/2023 10:54	Lonny Kapelushnik	Please Help/D4	Morning Councilmember Valdemoros, I'm hoping you can help my fiancé and I out with an issue in the district. We live right near the Walgreens at the corner of 500E and 400S. They have an issue with loiterers so to solve this they play loud organ music to make it undesirable to loiter. Unfortunately it has the added effect of making it undesirable to live here. After months where we can't sit on our balcony, can't open our windows and sometimes wake up or fall asleep to LOUD organ music, in addition to listening to it throughout the day, we've become uncomfortable in our own home and no longer want to live here. We're not the only ones in the area that feel this way. When my fiancé spoke with Walgreens they say they do it because the police won't remove the loiterers and their staff feels unsafe. When I spoke with the police they say they wouldn't do anything about the noise because the music was louder on other days, even though it is against the cities noise ordinance. At this point we're unsure what we can do, but if there is anything you can do to help we'd greatly appreciate it. Thank you, Lonny Kapelushnik
6/14/2023 10:57	Emilee Davis	Traffic Police/D4	Dear Ana, I live at REDACTED, SLC. I've lived here for nearly three years and there are many pros and cons to living downtown. Today, I'm making a case for the need for traffic police downtown. I live and work downtown and love to access the city by foot. I walk whenever possible ... to the grocery store, restaurants, outdoor festivals and activities, shopping, and trails and parks. I think that's one of the perks to living downtown. However, the downside to accessing the city by foot is that the city can be unfriendly to pedestrians. I'm writing this an hour after almost being hit by a car turning left as I crossed the street in the crosswalk. This happens on a weekly basis - almost being hit by a car as I walk in a crosswalk. In fact, I was hit by a car last summer. The driver admitted to being intoxicated, on prescription medications, and yet he was not ticketed when I reported the accident to the police. I have the license plate of a motorcycle that sped through a crosswalk on State Street last week and almost hit the pedestrians walking through. I'm REALLY frustrated with the driving culture here and would love to see downtown Salt Lake City be more friendly to and safe for pedestrians. I think one of the best ways to do that is to add traffic police to some of the busiest intersections. Thanks in advance for your time. Emilie Davis
6/14/2023 12:39	Susan Klinker	Mayor's Budget	Dear Ana, I am reaching out to request your support for the Mayor' Budget, especially sustainability & air quality initiatives and additional staff to monitor air quality. Local geography & climate pose unique challenges for our city. Our weather is becoming more volatile & dust storms from the drying lake bed and West Desert are becoming increasingly concerning. Monitoring and addressing solutions is one of the most important issues of our time. I also hope you will support affordable housing initiatives that provide equitable opportunities for all. Thanks for your service and contribution to forging the path forward for our community. Sincerely, Susan

6/15/2023 9:10	John Hinckley	Beacon Drive Pedestrian Walkway	I received a postcard showing that the street I live on, REDACTED, in SLC, will be adding a Pedestrian Walkway 6-foot-wide, for children walking to the catwalk leading to Indian Hills Elementary School. I was very surprised at this decision for the following reasons - · There was no notice sent out that this Pedestrian Walkway was being considered and would seek input of those who live on Beacon Dr. · Only a handful of children use the Beacon Dr. catwalk on a daily basis during the school year · Indian Hills Elementary School has been in existence for about 65 years and to the best of my knowledge, there has never been an accident to a child or adult that uses the catwalk · This is another example of using taxpayer money to do something that is not necessary I'm asking that you reconsider this Pedestrian Walkway and use taxpayer monies in more needed areas. Thanks John Hinckley

6/15/2023 12:00	Kyannah Loyal	Affordable Housing	Dear Councilwoman, Petro I am a senior at East high in Salt Lake city, and I am writing to you as my personal city council representative to convey my concernment regarding the lack of affordable housing in Salt Lake. As you know, in early March of this year the average 30-year mortgage rate increased to 6.65%. And the higher the mortgage rate, the higher the housing market will be decreasing activity. Making it hard to find affordable housing, for both independents and dependents. It's critical for our city to take action by addressing this issue. One possible solution could be increasing funding towards affordable housing programs. This wouldn't only provide more resources for affordable housing options, but also stimulate the local economy creating jobs in the construction industry. I am hopeful you may consider this issue as you continue to help improve our city. Thank you for your time and consideration. Sincerely, Kyannah Loyal, 18yo
6/15/2023 14:38	John Clapp	Funding requests	Councilwoman Petro, As we envision the North temple as the entrance into the city, I just wanted to give some input in appropriating funding. We would feel very appreciative to consider the following areas to include money for Madsen Park. including new signage, small dog park, park benches-tables , new playground equipment. As the Folsom trail has been years in the making and now here. It needs funding appropriated for maintenance of the trail including regular maintenance of garbage removal, and cleanup on either side of the cement walkway. Additional lighting for crime prevention of the Euclid Neighborhood now considered in the Fairpark boundaries, and neighborhoods across N. Temple on the Northside of the Trax line to the N. temple quadrant (perhaps like what was done on 800 block between N. Temple and So. Temple, utilizing poles that already are in place). The North Temple quadrant funded for trash and recycle bins placed along both sides of N. Temple including maintenance to help the new residents moving in , which will also enhance economic development along the North Temple quadrant. Fencing in city owned property to reduce danger with indigent walking across many tracks lines, burning large fires and adding petty crimes to the adjoining neighborhoods. This is an area that has to be constantly abated and is just off the grid with little overwatch. The area is between 600 W. and approx 800 West and between South Temple and 200 So. Thankyou for your consideration. John Clapp

6/20/2023 8:29	Patrick De Freitas	N/A	Hello Councilwoman, Thank you for your presentation to the ECCC meeting on Thursday. It was very helpful to get some background on the current decisions and considerations of the City Council. A couple of things emerged for me during the ECCC meeting. This email is the first of two, since they're slightly different topics. The presentation by the architect for the Office Max project reminded me how often big construction projects like his simply take over the pedestrian sidewalks with minimal consideration given to actual pedestrians. I'm sure you've observed how often such projects just offer a sign saying "Sidewalk closed. Use other side." This is, to put it mildly, not at all helpful. Many people, as I'm certain you've also seen, simply walk in the street to get around the construction obstruction. Dangerous. The City's Guidelines for Pedestrian Accessibility During Construction simply do not go far enough. Here's what they currently say: Where existing pedestrian routes are blocked or detoured, information should be provided about alternate routes that are useable by pedestrians with disabilities, particularly those who have visual disabilities. This must include access to temporary bus stops, reasonably safe travel across intersections, and other routing issues. What's missing in the Guidelines (are they even enforceable?) is any reasonable attempt to facilitate continuous same-side pedestrian access. Something like this, for example: a shed roof walkway or Jersey barriers There are examples of both types of safe access in our downtown but they're a rarity. Such safety features are standard in many cities. From my rather cursory online look, these standards are mostly required in denser cities. But there's no reason it couldn't happen here. And Salt Lake City is definitely getting more dense — especially your district! Yes, of course, builders are reluctant to do anything that'll increase their expenses or slow construction, but, in my analysis, there are compelling safety issues that override their concerns. Thanks for your time and attention, Patrick de Freitas
6/20/2023 8:35	Patrick De Freitas	Bird Friendly Construction	Hello again, Councilwoman, The other thing I was reminded of during the ECCC meeting is that there is currently no consideration given to bird-friendly construction in Salt Lake City. What's that? Perhaps the simplest thing to do is link to a fairly recent article from the American Bird Conservancy. https://abcbirds.org/news/new-york-city-passes-countrys-most-wide-ranging-bird-friendly-building-legislation/ You'll see from this article that glass collisions are a major reason bird populations have declined in the US over the last 50 years. The ABC estimates that about 1 billion birds die every year colliding with glass. That's an astonishing number. Making future construction in Salt Lake City more bird friendly would definitely be a good thing for the survival of the bird species that migrate along the Wasatch Front. Thanks again for your time and attention, Patrick de Freitas
6/20/2023 8:40	Bethann Schwarz	Our Lady of Lourdes	Ana, I'm a neighbor of judge and our lady of Lourdes and I attended church at OLOL parish for years. The sale of this beautiful neighborhood school property will alter the landscape of our neighborhood. While the University of Utah is a positive and important school for the city, student housing at the Judge space would not be good. This neighborhood already has many 'homes' that rent to students- and it would be difficult for the neighborhood to absorb more. No prejudice against students, but the yard parties, the careless yard care, and temporary nature of their connection makes a difference. Many connections between long term neighbors exist now and we like it that way. Tearing down a beautiful church would be a mistake. If a developer from California wants to build condos on that space and would let the church remain part of the community, that might be a better fit for the neighborhood. But- housing that is lease only- no option to buy, is also a mistake. People ought to be able to own their own homes. The impact on the neighborhood would be better if each unit were sold so the buyer becomes a vested neighbor rather than a temporary tenant. We will miss neighborhood schools. The children coming and going are a positive for our neighborhood. These particular schools are good neighbors and students are respectful.

6/20/2023 10:46	Margaret Holloway	Camps	. The problem of little camps everywhere is there already are little camps everywhere. The hill had 100 people. Not sure how many now..they just cleaned it up and it didn't make the news. You have the river people who don't want any rules. The spattering of tents in other places might go to the camp ground. But this lets the other cities again off the hook and will tell them just send your problem to slc. You state the other counties have to build resource centers . But if the campers don't want to go then what? The tents are not going anywhere. Margaret
6/21/2023 8:21	Meredith Chandler	Lady of Lourdes Church	Hi Ana- Appreciate your help and diligence so far in the Judge/Our Lady of Lourdes property planning. As a neighbor and parishioner, I'm writing you to ask for your continued support and consideration to keep Our Lady of Lourdes intact. SLC has suffered enough exploitation over the years, and it would be a shame to add such a historic and hopeful pillar of our community to that list. In such tough times, our community needs more beacons of hope and service, not more businesses or skyscraper housing units, don't you think? Please keep our wonderful church, its parishioners, and our endless love for our community in your thoughts as you continue this planning process. Thank you, Meredith Chandler
6/21/2023 8:25	Cathleen Zick	Lady of Lordes Church	Dear Esther and Ana, Thank you so much for the information you shared last Thursday at the Douglas Neighborhood Meeting. It was educational and very helpful. I am writing with feedback on the update you provided regarding the pending sale of Judge Memorial High School and Our Lady of Lourdes Church. My spouse and I have viewed the high school and church to be good neighbors for 37 years we have lived in our home. So, we are sad to see the Catholic Diocese sell the property. From my perspective, there are two issues associated with the pending sale that would affect the quality of life in our neighborhood. The first is the impact that more mid-rise housing would have on the character, traffic, and turnover in our neighborhood. The building of a large mid-rise apartment complex on the property would likely have implications for turnover of residential properties in the immediate vicinity and an exodus of owner-occupied homes. Given the close proximity of our home to the University of Utah, I am well aware of how student-oriented housing can impact a neighborhood. My spouse and I support the university's current plan to expand student housing in to the Research Park area where it wouldn't push out or change the character of a residential neighborhood. If the University moves forward with that plan, I do not see the need to also establish a student-focused housing area on the Judge property and I would NOT be supportive of any changes in the zoning that would allow a student-focused mid-rise apartment complex. The second issue is the potential loss of Our Lady of Lourdes Church with the sale of the land. As a historic neighborhood building, it would be a shame to have it demolished. The fact that the Catholic Diocese is open to the church being repurposed, is promising. It would be lovely to have it repurposed in a way that enriched the community (e.g., a city library branch, a coffee shop), if possible. Thank you, Cathleen Zick
6/21/2023 8:29	Cece Holt	Lady of Lordes Church	Ms Valdemoros, I was unable to attend the ECC meeting last week because I am out of town. 6/27/2023 16:42	Todd Ridgeway	Tiny Home	Hello, I'd like to call to leave a comment and would like to contact back regarding Tiny Home village, Low-income housing. Why would Salt Lake City decide to allow people to move in to leave in SLC more since we don't have enough water that's going to cause the Great Salt Lake to dry and then the toxic chemical will effect all the people. I would like to discuss this and I live in D3 Thank you.
6/29/2023 16:27	John Mitchell	city budjet	Dear Council Members, I am aware that the city plans to construct "traffic calming" measures soon, but wouldn't it be better to first repair the streets that we now travel on? Whatever the cause, winter weather or longstanding neglect, our streets are in terrible shape. Let me exaggerate a bit to make a point, traveling on them is akin to riding a bucking bronco. I am also concerned that when one so severely restricts the flow of traffic that it will create angry drivers. I am already avoiding driving on state street because of the new flashing red light crosswalks that seem to always be occupied by slow walking pedestrians. the stop and go is just to much. Is it the city's goal to eliminate automobile use? If it is, then people will stop coming to the city. Salt Lake City is a long way from reaching the population critical mass point that will cause people to leave their cars home and use public transportation. The streets are wide enough to accommodate everyone. Why restrict the life out of them? Respectfully, John Mitchell SLC resident

7/3/2023 8:45	Bernie Hart	You name the place...you bring your data...I'll bring mine	Robert, Anosognosia. The word came up in a conversation with Rocky Anderson about homelessness. He, like Mayor Mendenhall, has put forth a number of models they would like to bring to Salt Lake City, but a brief google search shows that most of the cities these programs are in have a higher rate of homeless than SLC and the programs themselves, though effective with the populations they work with, have had little impact on chronic homelessness. The Haven for Hope in San Antonio only works with people who are able to advocate for themselves. This excludes the high percentage of homeless individuals you mentioned in your piece dealing with mental health and addiction issues. He and the current Mayor are also fans of Switchpoint, First Step Housing and The Otherside Academy, all institutions that are very successful, but screen entry into their programs. They are not open entry, low bar housing efforts. But here comes the hard part. All of us want the media to support our particular perspective on the issue of homelessness in hopes of more funding or more say at the table. I am now going to work hard to piss you off because if getting you upset and publicly challenging your point of view might actually get you to dig a little deeper before you write your next article, everyone in the homeless community will benefit. Anosognosia is a reference used to describe people in the mental health system who refuse to admit they have a problem. They pretend their perceptions of reality are real and maybe they are, but if they are, the rest of us are crazy. Could be...because.. advocating for anything without actually knowing if what you are advocating for works is a form of anosognosia or Institutionalized Ignorance. There is absolutely no data available to support the idea that our mental health programs actually work with more than a very small portion of those who enter the system. Nope none...but here you are advocating for spending more and more on something we/you don't know works. Institutionalized Ignorance or anosognosia at its most harmful level. But I believe there is a cure for the condition and that comes from doing research and asking for hard data that supports any claim of success, especially when dealing with the most vulnerable people in our community. Your view that not spending money to help this population is morally wrong is correct....but to advocate for spending more money on programs that may not work is not only wrong, but from my perspective in working with the homeless....will actually do way more harm than good. Time for your A game. I am calling BS on your perspective. Care to try and prove me wrong. When and where? Bernie Hart

7/5/2023 12:17	John Clapp	Area of Concern/D2	Detective Oliver, Councilman Puy, I'm going to continue to raise awareness of the severity of the issue on 800 west and South temple. These groups of drug dealers are creating significant problems. This is from Brittany Reese (owner of Sugar Space) She posted anonymously on our facebook page... "We have called the police four times this week from having someone bang on doors in the middle of night to someone hopping our house fence and stealing my son's skateboard and other items. We have had people hanging out on business property for hours at a time rummaging through the parking lot and stealing thousands of dollars from the construction site next to us. These are nightly occurrences that seem to be getting worse." Bill Cocker of the Red Iguana 2 is also reporting to me significant problems for his customers Here is a brief msg. of his regarding problems with a house next to Red Iguana 2. (All which is in proximity to the criminal encampment near Folsom on 800 West.) (Kenny is the owner/ developer of a boarded up home on south temple next to red Iguana) Bill Cocker wrote " Kenny, hope all is well with you. I'm passing on an email from John Clapp that I received June 5th regarding the house located next to Red Iguana 2 at 846 W. South Temple. I inspected the front yard & front of house a day ago myself and have attached pictures here of the very concerning circumstances both he and now I have confirmed regarding the current lack of security of your property and the risk to both of our restaurant and our neighborhood. This is the West Front Porch & Door. The Plywood, that was covering the door has been removed. People were shooting up on this porch. I remind you that half the customers that come to Red Iguana 2 walk in from the auxiliary parking lot or from street parking right past the front porch of this house, seeing people camping, shooting up on the porches and defecating in the driveway there. The East Front porch chain link has been completely detached from the house and is useless as is. The front door is fully accessible and from the looks of it, anyone can walk across that porch and down the east side of the house into the back yard as well. Additionally, the lock on the East front door has been under attack and will eventually be forced open. This should not continue as the encampments in the area are creating havoc. Yes, there are some ideas ...this area needs immediate help , and should be a priority. The City, UPRR, UTA or whomever should jointly be meeting quickly to mitigate this area which is going to get worse. Coordinate fencing ASAP ,and Abate these groups frequently and follow up days later to make sure they don't return. If allowed to continue longer, it will take months to stop the migration of people, cars and open drug deals on 800 west and South Temple. I have a pretty good pulse of this area, and I forecast this will begin to undermine and impact the N. Temple area. John Clapp

Dear City Council Members: This letter is to offer sincere thanks for your support of the arts in Utah during your time in office. Our theatre company, Pygmalion Theatre Company, has been the benefactor of grant money from Salt Lake Arts Council, Utah Arts & Museums, and ZAP. Be assured that the grants directly support our shows, and without it, we would likely be unable to survive. There is such a bounty of cultural and arts events in Utah, and we are proud to be part of this vibrant community. I hope you are proud too, and will continue to support not only Pygmalion, but the broader arts community with much needed funds. Most sincerely, Barbara Gandy Member, Board of Trustees Pygmalion Theatre Co.

7/6/2023 15:32	Marc Cronan	Granary District	Hello, Given the current and future expected growth of the Granary district, I was wondering if any consideration has been given to reactivating the abandoned railroad tracks along 400 West, say from 600 South to the Ballpark Trax station, with something like the Sugarhouse Trolley? Seems like it would be a good way for people to get around in that area and patronize the local businesses/breweries, etc... Thanks, Marc Cronan
7/7/2023 14:21		Molly Jones - D7 City Council	Hello, This email is to express our support for Molly Jones to fill the vacant seat in D7 that Amy Fowler previously held. Molly specifically sought out the Chamber's input on a variety of business and community matters, where she: • Expressed a sincere interest in aligning SH businesses and community • An eagerness to provide direction and leadership for the future development of Sugar House • Dedication to being a voice for the Chamber and the SH Community Council Further, as a business owner in Sugar House, she has a bond with the area that other candidates do not. We hope these will be taken into consideration, and we appreciate your time. Thank you, Sugar House Chamber

7/10/2023 9:40	Heidi Schubert	D7 Position	Dear Councilperson Mano, I want to sincerely thank you for spending some of your valuable time getting to know me and talking about aspects of District 7 and the council as a whole. I have really enjoyed this experience, value the education and appreciated knowing more about how the system works. With this knowledge I have decided against applying for the district 7 seat. I think I make a highly informed constituent and qualified candidate, but I don't think have the background with the city to streamline the process of coming up to speed during the short appointment period, nor the political bravado to run for office in November. I would like to think that our discussion was not a waste of your time and hope to use this engagement as I step into other community endeavors. Thank you for your service. Heidi Schubert

7/10/2023 9:45	Mark Flores	(EXTERNAL) Urban Forestry Division / D5	. Councilmember Mano, I wanted to take a moment to praise our Urban Forestry employees. Last Monday, July 3, 2023, the evening rain and windstorm toppled a large branch from a parking strip tree in front of our neighbor's home. The first branch hit a second large branch snapping it as well, with both branches and debris landing in our driveway, the street, and the sidewalk. We were able to clear the driveway, street, and sidewalk by pulling the branches onto our front yard, but it was still quite a mess. I contacted Urban Forestry after the July 4th holiday and within 24 hours the branches and debris were cleared from our yard as if nothing had ever happened. Someone from Urban Forestry even made the effort to leave a message confirming our address and letting us know she was sending someone out. Everyone at Urban Forestry did a great job representing the City and we are grateful for their efforts. MARK A. FLORES,
7/10/2023 10:48	Mark Lawrence	Calling out the Supreme Court + Resolution Request / D5	Dear Councilman Mano, I've been visiting my favorite city in the world this past week, Berlin, Germany. It's a huge city of millions, but rather than exploiting crowded conditions, the openness and breadth of the city's layout embraces a feeling of individual acceptance. There is a place for anyone who takes time to make a stay of any kind in present day Berlin. The openness includes acceptance of and admonition against the worst crime of the Holocaust, dehumanizing classes of people, literally assigning these groups as subhuman, a matter of official state sanctioned discrimination and social policy. The National Socialists designed an efficient system that imprisoned and murdered these undesirables. The day before yesterday, I went out to a Holocaust Memorial called Platform 17, Grunewald Station. As soon as I recognized I had entered this memorial, I physically felt oppression fall over me like never before. On approach to the memorial stands a concrete sculpture. In negative relief, full sized human forms are cast in the wall. A simply inscribed plaque declares 'This memorial admonishes that no matter the cost, what ever the circumstance, courage must be summoned to stand against any effort to demean any person in any way, by any means or measure, whatsoever.' Quite possibly it was this charge that impressed on me the seriousness of this monument's true purpose. More than 50,000 Berlin Jews were deported from this platform to the death camps of the Nazi System from 1942-1945. In the week before my visit, an extremist faction of our own United States Supreme Court declared in a hyped up case brought before them, class distinctions have constitutional standing as a matter of law. Specifically, Christians are protected from offering public services to LGBTQ people because of religious freedom blah, blah, blah...! It's a ruling that flies in the face of equality under the law. Class distinction is not intended in our founding documents. Despite this stink of a ruling, it's wrong. It endangers the lives of American Citizens every bit as earnestly as that plaque mentioned above warns against. Councilman Mano, let us speak out against this misguided crap. It is unworthy the heritage of our Republic's ideals. It is most certainly individuals and their unalienable rights Supreme Court Justices are supposed to be making secure in this society. I ask that you discuss in our City Council a Resolution admonishing our Supreme Court to reverse this decision. They are outside our efforts for forging a more perfect Union. We, the people are entirely within our rights to call them out. If I can help in anyway, I feel compelled to respond. Respectfully, Mark L Lawrence
7/10/2023 10:58	Leigh Lochmal	homeless emcampments	300 E is inundated with homeless camps. They ae openly using drugs and defecating not only in the bushes but on the sidewalk a well. They are even bolcking the sidewalk. I have contacted the police several times but it isn't really their job. This is your job to clean up residential streets. Also do something about the abandoned buildings owned by city. Either sell them or tear them down.

7/10/2023 12:44	Marjorie McCloy	Foothills Public Lands/D5	Dear Mr. Mano, After the well-intentioned but poorly enacted trail contraction in the Foothills a couple of years ago, the City halted new construction and added contingency clauses and benchmarks for this project in the 2022-2023 budget. This resulted in better preparation and increased accountability of Public Lands actions in the Foothills. I am urging you to carry these items over into the 2023-2024 budget. We must spend wisely to protect the Foothills that make our City so special. Thank you, Marjorie McCloy

7/10/2023 16:52	Andrea Matlin	D7 Aimee Horman	Dear SLC Council, I'm writing to express my deep support of Aimee Horman's application to represent SLC's District 7. I've known Aimee most of my life. When we were in high school she and her family welcomed me into their home to live with them while I lacked support from my own family. Obviously Aimee and her family's generosity had a tremendous impact on my life. As a bonus, Aimee and I have remained close friends for 35 years. And, our paths have crossed professionally — specifically in my work at the Natural History Museum of Utah and Aimee's impactful work with the Jordan River Commission. In both her professional and personal life — Aimee is an employee, neighbor, and friend you can count on. If I were to describe Aimee with one word, that word would be tenacious. If there's a problem, Aimee has the reputation to roll up her sleeves and fix it, without relenting. She knows that her strength comes from relying on not just her own strengths, but the strengths of others. From teaching at the Guadalupe School to creating community gardens to engaging with and organizing thousands of volunteers to forward the mission of the Jordan River Commission — Aimee has nothing short of a magic about her when it comes to encouraging community engagement and developing relationships. I can't think of a better fit to represent D7, and it'll certainly be difficult to find someone with deeper roots and a deeper passion in and about the community than Aimee. Sincerely, Andrea Matlin 84103

7/10/2023 16:57	Mark Morris	D7 Council Vacancy: Support for Aimee Horman	Dear SLC Council members- I'd like to provide my whole-hearted support for Aimee Horman as you consider appointing a new member to fill the role of council representative for District 7. I first met Aimee years ago as a neighbor, working with a small group to organize the Sugar House community garden. It became clear immediately that Aimee had a wide network of friends and acquaintances that she could rally when needed to bring about change in our neighborhood. She was absolutely responsible for the success of the project, for raising money and in-kind donations, engaging with the city, and even rallying volunteers for the hard labor of building a community garden. The project could not have happened without her experience and personal commitment to the neighborhood. Later, Aimee was particularly helpful with another Sugar House project I was involved with, creating a temporary public plaza at 'Sugarmont Plaza'. Once again, Aimee was able to conjure up a group of community volunteers when needed, making the entire project seemingly effortless to install. Since then, I've crossed paths with Aimee in her role working with the Jordan River Commission and its efforts to support and preserve an essential asset of our city. As a business and property owner in District 7, I would absolutely support Aimee as a well-qualified and committed candidate as you consider filling the position on your council. I think Aimee's understanding of our community, her commitment to Salt Lake City, and her understanding of the issues we face together will prove a great asset to the council. Thanks! Mark Morris

7/11/2023 9:10	Larry Wright	Petitions/D4	Dear Ana Valdemoros My name is Larry Wright and I live 2 houses west of the property seeking the petition. This request to amend the Sugar House Neighborhood Plan and the zoning map for the property located at 1782 South 1600 East is a perfect example of Spot Zoning. Spot zoning is the process of singling out a small parcel of land for a use classification materially different and inconsistent with the surrounding area and the adapted city master plan, for the sole benefit of the owner of that property and to the detriment of the rights of other property owners. The proposed map amendment lacks consistency with the zoning within the neighborhood. SR-3 zoning is not located within the area and differs significantly from the existing and established single-family residential zoning district. The Salt Lake City Staff report and the Planning commission both have sent a negative recommendation to the City Council. I agree with this recommendation to deny the amendment of the Sugar House Neighborhood Plan zoning map, and change the property zoning from R-1/7000 to SR-3 in order to change from Low Density Residential to Medium Density Residential. The amendments are sought to relieve what the applicant considers an unforeseen hardship. The City has ruled (July 19th 1999, September 9th 2020, and Appeal September 18th 2020) that this parcel is part of the property at 1572 East Blaine Avenue. In 2014 the current owner had to purchase the two parcels together, as did every previous purchaser dating back to 1985. That should have been a red flag to the current owner. In other words, any hardship could not have been unforeseen. The garage sits on two properties, which suggests that the city has considered this one property since the garage was built in 1985. This is consistent with the 5 properties to the west that are similarly narrow and deep. The challenge to build at 1782 South 1600 East has never been an unforeseen hardship. Thanks, Larry Wright

7/11/2023 9:56	Paul Petersen	1782 S 1600 E. - PLNPCM202201138 & PLNPCM2022-01139	No one in the neighborhood believes this is a good idea. The only access to the property is a small driveway that is shared by 4 neighbors. There is no direct access to the sewer line on 1600 East, so they will have to dig up the small driveway and the road to gain access. This is also a developer trying to make this happen, she does not live in the neighborhood and does not care, she just wants to build another house to rent out, bringing more people and more traffic to our nice little neighborhood. I have been living in my house for over 15 years and most of neighbors are the same we help make up why Sugarhouse is great neighborhood. None of believe changing the master plan to allow this house to be built is a good a idea and none of can see a benefit to us if it does happen. Please share my email with the Council and we are also getting tired of this fight, she has tried numerous times to get this to go through and she keeps getting denied, hopefully this is the last fight. Thanks, Paul Petersen
7/11/2023 10:20	Hanim Sappington	Aimee Horman	Hello, I am writing to express my confidence in Aimee Horman as the best choice to fill the SLC Council's vacant seat in District 7. I have known Aimee for over 13 years--we have shared many experiences, both joyful and purposeful, as we have raised our children right down the street from each other. It is through these experiences that I have come to trust and just, really like this phenomenal woman. She is ambitious, creative, diligent and full of positive energy which she employs toward truly good causes everywhere she finds herself. I know she will be an incredible asset to the SLC Council and hope she has the opportunity to prove it. Thank you, Hanim Sappington
7/11/2023 10:21	Stephen and shelly Hamilton	Aimee Horman	To whom it may concern. We are writing you to share how Aimee Horman would be the best choice for District 7 city council. Ms. Horman advocates for her community at many levels. She has actively engaged to help smart growth in her neighborhood. She Supports conservation of our lands and waters in Utah. Aimee is a strong listener and collaborator and will help Salt Lake City council make strong decisions to support constituents in District 7 and Utah. Sincerely, Stephen and Shelly Hamilton
7/11/2023 10:48	Anthony Wright	1782 South 1600 East	I am writing in favor of the applicants rezone request for 1782 South 1600 East. The parcel being requested for rezone is a distinct parcel in County records and should be treated as such and not aggregated with the adjacent parcel. One of the most important rights associated with property ownership is the ability to adapt or develop it for some profitable or desirable use. The buildable box of the parcel is just over 1000 square feet and does not lend itself to a large-scale development; however, as an individual parcel, the owner should have the right to develop a small independent residential structure. The current zoning of r1-7000 makes this parcel undevelopable under current city restrictions. While I understand the neighbors' concerns that they like having the open space next to their backyards, this land currently has a structure on it and, this proposed rezone would meet the stated city objectives of gentil infill development. If the reasonable ask of a rezone is not granted, The applicant could just do a lot consolidation, build as big of an ADU as possible on the parcel in leu of an independent single family home and expand the adjacent structure to its minimum setbacks. Adding and building on the land is not the question as this is possible with or without the rezone; however, the rezone would allow a development that makes more sense and would have a lesser impact than the consolidation of the parcels. Again, due to the small nature of the parcel, a large development is not possible. An independent single-family home is.

7/11/2023 12:36	Angela Morgan	Tents/Rvs in Church, business parking lots.	The City Council continues to put off finding a designated location for a sanctioned homeless encampment, as they have promised to do for three years now. Instead they have set aside $500,000 to be given to churches, businesses and other entities to help them put up to ten tents and rv's on these properties. Some churches, businesses will look at this as a money grab opportunity, if not given a firm set of requirements when their kind and generous hearts, willingness to 'help the homeless' is presented to them in this manner. Homeless encampments in our neighborhoods will be detrimental to those living in the areas and quality of life and safety for those families. In permitting this action the city is breaking it's own ordinances, specifically, No Tents shall be erected for longer than ten days on private property. So far the City has failed in having any requirements for these grantees in setting up homeless encampments. The City needs to make sure requirements include: Assuring the grantees have informed their insurance company they will permit tents, rv's, etc and require added liability insurance. The grantees should be required to inform their neighbors within a 5 block area, in writing, of their intention of setting up encampments on their property. have a 24 hour contact person for neighbors should an emergency or situation arise. be required to provide adequate bathroom facilities, access to running water and adequate security on the property that will be hosting homeless tents and rvs. They should limit the size of the tents/rvs, and number of people allowed in each. Instead of following through, finding a designated area for one or two larger sanctioned homeless camps, as they have been promising, the City is shirking it's responsibility and placing it upon our neighborhoods. There is no reason why a larger sanctioned camp area couldn't be placed where the Tiny Home Village has been designated. The City owns 22 acres on Victory Road, another 39 acres at 1 E 700 North, and another 54 acres behind Ensign Vista Drive. You need to quit delaying a sanctioned camping area, stop dumping your responsibilities on neighborhoods and parks and start addressing this problem instead of kicking the can down the road.
7/11/2023 15:26	Suzanne Stensaas	(EXTERNAL) Support for Molly Jones for interim council member for District 7, Salt Lake City	have met and spoken with Molly for over an hour and she has a varied and diverse background which should help her get up to speed on city issues. She has a bachelor's degree in political science, has worked as a teacher with immigrants teaching ESL, worked at forming city policy in Berkeley, and most of all is enthusiastic and is willing to devote full time. She wants to stay in touch with our community and she lives in it. Her energy and time should make her an excellent interim choice and we can see what she can do in the few trial month before the election. Sincerely, Suzanne Stensaas, resident district 7 since 1968!
